

Hyperbaric Oxygen Therapy (HBOT) Financial Assistance Options – Denver Area

This guide provides options for financial assistance and support for Hyperbaric Oxygen Therapy (HBOT), especially for individuals in the Denver, Colorado area.

1. Insurance Coverage (First Step)

Medicare and many private insurance plans may cover HBOT for approved conditions such as:

- Non-healing diabetic wounds
- Radiation injuries
- Severe infections

Contact your insurance provider and ask:

“Is HBOT covered for my condition, and at which facilities?”

2. Denver-Area HBOT Centers (Ask About Financial Assistance)

These centers often offer financial assistance or payment plans:

- UCHHealth Hyperbaric Oxygen Therapy (multiple Denver locations)
Phone: 720-848-0000
- HCA HealthONE Hyperbaric Oxygen Therapy (Denver)
Phone: 303-584-1000
- Porter Adventist Hospital Hyperbaric Medicine
Phone: 303-778-1955

When calling, ask:

“Do you offer charity care, discounts, or payment plans for HBOT?”

3. Hospital Financial Assistance Programs

Most hospitals offer:

- Charity care programs
- Sliding-scale fees

- Payment plans

Ask for the 'Financial Assistance Office' when you call.

4. Nonprofit Grants & Support

Some organizations may help:

- Help Hope Live – fundraising and some grant support
www.helphopelive.org
- United Healthcare Children's Foundation (for children)
www.uhccf.org
- Brain Injury Association of Colorado
www.biacolorado.org

These organizations may provide direct grants or help you raise funds.

5. Community Support Options

Local support may include:

- Rotary Clubs
- Churches
- Community foundations

These groups sometimes provide small grants or fundraising help.

6. Clinical Trials

Some clinical trials offer free or reduced-cost HBOT.

Search: www.clinicaltrials.gov

Use search term: "hyperbaric oxygen therapy"

Helpful Tip

HBOT can be expensive, so many people combine:

- Insurance coverage (if eligible)
- Hospital discounts
- Community or nonprofit support