

The 2026 Brain Injury Survivor Series via ZOOM

Please join the Brain Injury Hope Foundation (BIHF) for another year of exciting and interactive survivor series designed just for YOU! We explore ways to achieve a better life for people with BI and Post Traumatic Stress (PTS). These sessions will help you accomplish your definition of success. Spouses, family, friends, and professionals who serve the BI community are welcome AND other communities (ABI, Stroke, Parkinson's, MS, etc.) are welcome too.

The Aging Brain and the Long Effects of Brain Injury

Join Dr. Mary Ann Keatley, Ph.D., CCC and Co-Founder of The Brain Injury Hope Foundation (BIHF) in Colorado, Researcher Judy Gargaro, BSc, Med from Toronto, Canada, and Moderator Joanne E. Cohen, M.A., CBIS, Vice-President of BIHF, for the latest research on Cognitive/Mental issues including ways to maintain your cognitive functioning following a brain injury or neurological disease (memory, processing speed, flexibility of thinking, logic, and language) at more efficient performance levels as you age. We will also discuss the long effects of Brain Injury on the brain, as well as fatigue and sleep disorders as you age and current research on exercise, nutrition, meditation and spiritual fitness as ways to help the aging brain.

The 2026 BI Survivor Series

Your Host/Panel Facilitator: Joanne Cohen, M.A., CBIS/Vice-President of the Brain Injury Hope Foundation

Joanne was in a car accident in 1992 while vacationing in the Bahamas. Her life was forever changed. She was unable to walk and a year later she discovered many of her personal challenges were due to a traumatic brain injury (TBI). Joanne has overcome many obstacles and has exceeded her medical diagnosis, leading to a remarkable and inspirational story and

Joanne published her first book in June, 2019, Getting Hit, Getting Up, Moving Beyond: My Journey Through Brain Injury, a compelling story of her challenges as she faced sequential “hits” and how she handled adversity with resilience time after time. She depicts the path to “moving beyond” and create a full life that includes tools to do so, many that can now be used as we are all “hit” with the Covid-19 crisis. Her book is available at Amazon.com or BarnesandNoble.com

Impact of Brain Injury on Family Dynamics, Part 2

Michelle Coe, Olivia Kunevicius, Noelle Mitchell and Jose & Iris Reyes will join us to give powerful insights into what it is like to be a family member of one of their loved ones who experienced a brain injury and discuss the impact on the family. Noelle Mitchell, a professional who lends supports to BI survivors and their families, will give her perspective from her professional point of view. Our first program on this topic was so effective we were asked to do this again, hence Part 2
